Re-Energizing Organizations!

Finding Your Second Wind In A Warp Speed World

GOVERNMENT AGENCIES

Everyone is feeling the heat — from small businesses, to limited liability companies, to corporations, to . . . yes, government agencies. All are being called upon to get more done with less and do it more efficiently. Our “customers” are sophisticated and, therefore, more demanding. Call it forced efficiencies if you will, but the pressure is, and will remain, on.

Keynote:

Re-Energizing Your Agency

Finding Your Second Wind in A Warp Speed World

Call it “the draw” if you will. The forces that zap our physical, mental, emotional and spiritual energy are many. Cultural pressures, time demands, people problems, workloads, economic uncertainty . . . the list can go on and on. It is easy to become apathetic and complacent. It can seem like the breath has been knocked out of your agency.

In this keynote presentation, Jack will show you how to find “Your Second Wind.”

Seminar:

Overcoming the Agency Disconnect

How to Get EVERYONE on Board

How do you convince people who have been doing things in the same way for so long that the world has, indeed, changed and they must change with it? How do you get the Generation X’ers, and Y’ers and Millennials to “buy in?” How do you succeed in getting everyone on the same page? How do you transform a departmental culture? In this seminar, Jack will share the secrets to building a great team.

“We’ve heard nothing but good things about the conference and especially your close out message! Awesome . . . Keep telling those stories!”
